

SAP ID:

ROLL No:

UNIVERSITY OF PETROLEUM AND ENERGY STUDIES
End Semester Examination, July 2020
Open Book – Through Blackboard Learning Management System

Course: Jurisprudence
Program: BA.LL.B (CL)/ BA.LL.B (EL)Batch 2

Semester: IV

Time: 03 hrs.

Max. Marks: 100

Instructions:

As this examination is non-proctored, the students are expected to demonstrate a very high degree of Academic Integrity and not copy contents from resources referred. Instructors would look for understanding of the concept by the students and any similarity found from resources online/ offline shall be penalized in terms of deduction of marks and even cancellation of paper in requisite cases. The online examination committee of the School would also look for similarity of two answer scripts and if answer scripts of two or more students are found similar, both the answer scripts shall be treated as copied and lead to cancellation of the paper. In view of the aforesaid points, the students are warned that they should desist from any unfair means and provide answers in their own words.

All Questions are Compulsory
Answer each question in not more than 500 words

S. No.		Marks	CO
1	The State of Alexa is primarily a theocratic state with a population of 1000. The people were primarily agriculturalists. (Farmers, growers, planters, ranchers, sharecroppers). It is a primitive city state and implements the notion of referendum while taking major policies for the benefit of the people. Each household has one representative. Women, children and slaves were not allowed to vote/ participate. Therefore the strength of the people who can participate in the policy making process is 150. It favours the concept of direct democracy as opposed to representative democracy. The state is the product of a revolution and is newly built, therefore, needs a charter to govern them. But they are ignorant of their social status and they are mutually disinterested in other's affairs. While they are in the process of formation of a charter, a massive epidemic broke out infecting hundreds of people, mostly women and slaves. Consider yourself as a representative of your household who has a voice in the decision making process and fill the following questions as a part of the referendum. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What is your notion of right and liberty? (50 words)2. Classify the rights that are to be given (to whom) in order of preference with suitable reasons. (150 words) The parameter for the preference is justice: Distributive and reformative justice.	20 (5+15)	3

	P.S. Assume yourself to be an adult male. If I find the answer that “I am not allowed to vote because I am a female/child”, then I am going to mark your answer as zero.
Ans.
2	The Sabrimala Judgement evoked a lot of ethos. It struck the ‘Geist’ of the ‘Volk’. Critically comment on the statement. (150 words)	20	3
Ans.
3	A owns a plot of land with a house and a poultry 1. A lets the house and B is the tenant of the house with a lease for 10 months. 2. A entered into a contract with D for the upkeep of poultry, farming of poultry, and D gives a share of the profits accruing out of the farming of poultry. Discuss the person of inherence, incidence, content, subject matter of the right in each case.	20 (10+10))	2
Ans.
4	“Law is an instrument for balancing the conflicting interests with minimum friction and waste.” Critically analyse the aforesaid statement with respect to the Citizenship Amendment Act. (Comment on the inventory of the rights created, how these rights conflict with each other, how balance can be obtained, how friction and waste can be minimised, how factors such as social pathology, social morphology, social control play a massive role in the legislation making process) (150 words)	20	4
Ans.
5	1. A young boy was engaged to clean a pond. During cleaning it he found a golden ring. He took it to a goldsmith to sell. The goldsmith kept the ring and refused to return or pay, saying that the ring was not the boy’s. Decide on the boys’ claim of possession. 2. X purchased a table from Y. The table had a secret drawer which was not known to X at the time of purchase. Y had mistakenly left some money in the secret drawer which X appropriated, when he found out. When Y remembered his money left in the drawer, he wanted to get it and X refused saying transfer of ownership of the table includes the money kept in it. Decide the liability of X and justify your answer.	20 (10+10))	1
Ans.			