12	There have been a growing skepticism against Bretton Wood institutions particularly IMF. The IMF was created in the wake of World War II to manage the global regime of exchange rates and international payments. However, it has assumed a role of intervening when they witness debt crisis. Critically evaluate its role in managing debt crisis in developing countries. Do you think it has been a savior for developing countries or not.	25	4
13	2020 tied as the hottest year ever recorded, with record-breaking extreme weather and climate-driven disasters from fires to floods to hurricanes. While global leadership on climate change will require multi-faceted policy solutions, there is consensus that extreme weather will results in more droughts, flooding, and conflicts over natural resources. In the light of above statement critically evaluate the politics of climate change between the developed and developing countries.	25	4
